CANON 23 OF TITLE 1 OF THE DIGEST.

OF CHURCH MUSIC.

§ 1. The Selections of the Psalms in Metre, and Hymns, which are set forth by authority, and Anthems in the words of Holy Scripture, are allowed to be sung in all Congregations of this Church before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons, at the discretion of the Minister, whose duty it shall be, by standing directions, or from time to time, to appoint such authorized Psalms, Hymns, or Anthems as are to be sung.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of every Minister of this Church, with such assistance as he may see fit to employ from persons skilled in music, to give order concerning the tunes to be sung at any time in his church; and especially, it shall be his duty to suppress all light and unseemly music, and all indecency and irreverence in the performance, by which vain and ungodly persons profane the service of the Sanctuary.

IN the preparation of this work the same principle has been observed which seems to have guided the Hymnal Committee in the compilation of the words to which tunes are here set, namely, to provide, within proper limits, for a great variety of wants and tastes. A comprehensive range in the character of the tunes is required in a work designed for general use, and although the expectation is not entertained of pleasing all, yet it is believed that the present collection will be found well adapted to meet the wants of most of our congregations, in town and country. While care has been taken to exclude frivolous and secular compositions, and to sustain throughout a high average level in the character of the music, a few tunes which the student of a severe style of ecclesiastical music might not approve have been admitted, because on certain occasions any other tunes would not be acceptable or practicable. At missionary services especially, the introduction of other than familiar melodies would deprive the majority of the worshippers of the privilege of joining in the service of sacred song. Differences of taste and local preferences have in a measure been provided for, by giving in many cases alternate tunes. In some instances this plan seemed the more desirable on account of the difficulty of making a selection from several tunes equally suitable.

The Editors feel deeply the importance of elevating the standard of musical culture in our congregations, and they are in hearty sympathy with those who are labouring for this most desirable object; but they believe that the improvement will be best promoted, not by attempting a complete and radical change at once, but by gradually educating the people in a purer taste and better knowledge of the sacred art. The present work is prepared in accordance with these views, and in the hope that it will prove practically useful as a musical companion of the new Hymnal, and be found to contribute in some degree to the improvement of our ecclesiastical music.

PREFACE.

The various sources from which materials have been obtained for this work are given in the index. The best ancient, together with modern compositions of acknowledged excellence, have been freely used. The greater part of the collection consists of the standard tunes which have been so long and justly prized. For some of the peculiar metres it was found necessary to provide new tunes. Our grateful acknowledgments are tendered to those authors and proprietors who have so courteously placed their compositions at our disposal, and to the many kind friends who have aided us by their valuable suggestions. We have drawn largely from several admirable English Hymnals, especially "Hymns Ancient and Modern," the "Hymnary," and the "S. P. C. K. Hymnal," the authors and proprietors of which have our cordial thanks for the valuable aid which we have derived from their works. We also beg to express our grateful appreciation of the very liberal manner in which the publishers have carried out all our suggestions and wishes.

The system of notation which has been observed, it is believed, will prove advantageous in many respects, especially in suggesting a more spirited movement than that which is usually adopted for congregational singing. It is not intended, however, to indicate that all the tunes are to be sung at a rapid pace. The character of the tune and the subject-matter of the hymn in each case will suggest to the leader or choir the proper style of performance.

The tunes are given in keys best adapted to congregational singing, a matter of some importance, as organs are now built with a higher pitch than formerly.

The insertion of first verses between the staves, and the placing of the stems of the notes for each part in their proper positions, are advantages which will be readily recognized, and it is hoped will increase the value of the book sufficiently to compensate for the additional outlay required to secure this desirable feature.

GOSS.

1. Lo, he comes, with clouds descend-ing, Once for fa-vour'd sin-ners slain ;

Thousand thousand saints at - tend-ing Swell the tri-umph of his train ;

Al - le - lu - ia, Al - le - lu - ia ! Christ, the Lord, returns to reign. A-men.

2 Every eye shall now behold him,
Robed in dreadful majesty ;
Those who set at nought and sold him,
Pierced, and nailed him to the tree.
Deeply wailing,
Shall the true Messiah see.

3 Every island, sea, and mountain,
Heaven and earth, shall flee away :
And who hate him must, confounded,
Hear the trump proclaim the day ;
Come to judgment,
Come to judgment, come away.

4 Now redemption, long expected,
See in solemn pomp appear :
All his saints, 'by men rejected,
Now shall meet him in the air :
Alleluia !
See the day of God appear.

5 Yea, Amen ; let all adore thee,
High on thine eternal throne :
Saviour, take the power and glory ;
Claim the kingdom for thine own.
O come quickly !
Alleluia ! Come, Lord, come !

1. The Lord will come: the earth shall quake, The hills their fix-ed seat for-sake ;

And, withering from the vault of night, The stars withdraw their feeble light. A-men.

2 The Lord will come: but not the same
As once in lowly form he came,
A silent Lamb to slaughter led,
The bruised, the suffering, and the dead.

3 The Lord will come: a dreadful form,
With wreath of flame, and robe of storm,
On cherub wings, and wings of wind,
Anointed Judge of human-kind.

4 Can this be he who wont to stray
A pilgrim on the world's highway;
By power oppress'd, and mock'd by pride,
O God! is this the Crucified?

5 Go, tyrants, to the rocks complain;
Go, seek the mountain's cleft in vain;
But faith, victorious o'er the tomb,
Shall sing for joy, The Lord is come.

Be thou, O Christ, the sinner's stay,
Though heaven and earth shall pass away.

HOSANNA.

1. Ho - san - na to the liv - ing Lord! Ho - san - na to th'in-car-nate Word!

The first system of musical notation consists of a treble and bass staff. The treble staff has a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The melody begins with a quarter note G4, followed by a dotted quarter note A4, and then a series of eighth notes: B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F#4, E4, D4, C4. The bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes.

To Christ, Cre - a - tor, Saviour, King, Let earth, let heaven, Ho-san-na sing.

The second system of musical notation continues the melody and accompaniment. The treble staff melody includes notes like G4, A4, B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F#4, E4, D4, C4, and B4. The bass staff continues with accompaniment.

Ho - san - na, Lord, Ho - san - na in the high - - est! A - men.

The third system of musical notation concludes the piece. The treble staff melody features a long note on G4, followed by a quarter note A4, and then a series of eighth notes: B4, C5, B4, A4, G4, F#4, E4, D4, C4. The piece ends with a final chord in the bass staff.

2 Hosanna, Lord! thine angels cry;
Hosanna, Lord! thy saints reply;
Above, beneath us, and around,
The dead and living swell the sound;
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

3 O Saviour, with protecting care,
Return to this thy house of prayer:
Assembled in thy sacred name,
Where we thy parting promise claim:
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

4 But, chiefest, in our cleansèd breast,
Eternal! bid thy Spirit rest;
And make our secret soul to be
A temple pure, and worthy thee.
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

5 So in the last and dreadful day,
When earth and heaven shall melt away,
Thy flock, redeemed from sinful stain,
Shall swell the sound of praise again.
Hosanna, Lord! Hosanna in the highest!

The Bride-groom is a - ris - ing, And soon he will draw nigh;

2 See that your lamps are burning,
Replenish them with oil;
Look now for your salvation,
The end of sin and toil.
The watchers on the mountain
Proclaim the Bridegroom near,
Go meet him as he cometh,
With alleluias clear.

3 O wise and holy virgins,
Now raise your voices higher,
Till, in your jubilations
Ye meet the angel choir.

The marriage-feast is waiting,
The gates wide open stand;
Up, up, ye heirs of glory!
The Bridegroom is at hand.

4 Our hope and expectation,
O Jesus, now appear;
Arise, thou Sun so longed for,
O'er this benighted sphere!
With hearts and hands uplifted,
We plead, O Lord, to see
The day of earth's redemption,
And ever be with thee!

2 "Thee, in thy power's triumphant day,

4 We pray thee, Lord, arise,

Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King.

3 Risen with healing in his wings,
Light and life to all he brings.
Hail, the Sun of Righteousness!
Hail, the heaven-born Prince of Peace!
Holy Father, Holy Son,
Holy Spirit, Three in One!
Glory, as of old, to Thee,
Now and evermore shall be!
Hark! the herald-angels sing
Glory to the new-born King. Amen.

1. While shepherds watch'd their flocks by night, All seat-ed on the ground,

The an - gel of the Lord came down, And glo - ry shone a - round.

"Fear not," said he, for might-y dread Had seized their troubled mind;

"Glad tid-ings of great joy I bring To you, and all man-kind." A - men.

3 "To you, in David's town, this day
Is born of David's line,
The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord;
And this shall be the sign.

4 "The heavenly Babe you there shall find,
To human view display'd,
All meanly wrapt in swathing bands,
And in a manger laid."

5 Thus spake the seraph; and forthwith
Appeared a shining throng
Of angels, praising God, who thus Address'd their joyful song:

6 "All glory be to God on high,
And to the earth be peace;
Good-will henceforth from heaven to men
Begin, and never cease."

1. It came up - on the midnight clear, That glo-rious song of old,

Peace on the earth, good-will to men, From heaven's all-gracious King ;

The world in sol-ern still-ness lay To hear the an - gels sing. A-men.

2 Still through the cloven skies they come,
With peaceful wings unfurl'd ;
And still their heavenly music floats
O'er all the weary world ;
Above its sad and lowly plains
They bend on hovering wing,
And ever o'er its Babel sounds
The blessed angels sing.

3 O ye beneath life's crushing load,
Whose forms are bending low,
Who toil along the climbing way
With painful steps and slow !
Look now, for glad and golden hours
Come swiftly on the wing ;
O rest beside the weary road,
And hear the angels sing.

4 For lo, the days are hastening on,
By prophets seen of old,
When with the ever-circling years
Shall come the time foretold,
When the new heaven and earth shall own
The Prince of Peace their King,
And the whole world send back the song
Which now the angels sing.

His just dominion shall afford
A lasting theme of praise. |
| 5 In his blest days the just and good
Shall spring up all around ;
The happy land shall everywhere
With endless peace abound. | 12 The memory of his glorious name
Through endless years shall run ;
His spotless fame shall shine as bright
And lasting as the sun. |
| 6 His uncontroll'd dominion shall
From sea to sea extend ;
Begin at proud Euphrates' stream,
At nature's limits end. | 13 In him the nations of the world
Shall be completely bless'd,
And his unbounded happiness
By every tongue confess'd. |
| 7 To him the savage nations round
Shall bow their servile heads ;
His vanquish'd foes shall lick the dust,
Where he his conquest spreads. | 14 Then bless'd be God, the mighty Lord,
The God whom Israel fears ;
Who only wondrous in his works,
Beyond compare, appears. |
| 8 The kings of Tarshish and the isles
Shall costly presents bring ;
From spicy Sheba gifts shall come,
And wealthy Saba's king. | 15 Let earth be with his glory fill'd,
For ever bless his name ;
Whilst to his praise the listening world
Their glad accent proclaim. |

CANTERBURY.

- 2 Still we wait for thine appearing ;
Life and joy thy beams impart,
Chasing all our doubts, and cheering
Every meek and contrite heart.
- 3 Show thy power in every nation,
O thou Prince of peace and love ?

- Give the knowledge of salvation,
Fix our hearts on things above.
- 4 By thine all-sufficient merit,
Every burden'd soul release :
By the presence of thy Spirit,
Guide us into perfect peace.

EXPECTATION.

- 2 Joy to the world ! the Saviour reigns :
Let men their songs employ ; [plains,
While fields and floods, rocks, hills, and Repeat the sounding joy.
- 3 No more let sins and sorrows grow,
Nor thorns infest the ground ;

- He comes to make his blessings flow
Far as the curse is found.
- 4 He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove
The glories of his righteousness,
And wonders of his love.

A - bove the sum-mits of the hills, And draw the wondering eyes. A-men.

2 To this the joyful nations round,
All tribes and tongues, shall flow;
Up to the mount of God, they'll say,
And to his house we'll go.

3 The beams that shine from Sion's hill
Shall lighten every land;
The King who reigns in Salem's towers
Shall all the world command.

4 Among the nations he shall judge;
His judgments truth shall guide:

His sceptre shall protect the just,
And crush the sinner's pride.

5 For peaceful implements shall men
Exchange their swords and spears;
Nor shall they study war again
Throughout those happy years.

6 Come, O ye house of Jacob! come
To worship at his shrine;
And, walking in the light of God,
With holy graces shine.

1. How beauteous are their feet, Who stand on Si-on's hill; Who bring sal-va-tion on their tongues, And words of peace re-veal. A-men.

- 2 How charming is their voice :
How sweet their tidings are !—
“Sion, behold thy Saviour-King,
He reigns and triumphs here.”
- 3 How happy are our ears
That hear this joyful sound,
Which kings and prophets waited for,
And sought, but never found !
- 4 How blessed are our eyes
That see this heavenly light !

- Prophets and kings desired it long,
But died without the sight.
- 5 The watchmen join their voice,
And tuneful notes employ,
Jerusalem breaks forth in songs,
And deserts learn the joy.
- 6 The Lord makes bare his arm
Through all the earth abroad :
Let every nation now behold
Their Saviour and their God.

1. As with gladness men of old Did the guiding star behold; As with joy they hail'd its light,
Leading onward, beaming bright; So, most gracious Lord, may we Evermore be led to thee. A-men.

- 2 As with joyous steps they sped
To that lowly manger-bed;
There to bend the knee before
Him whom heaven and earth adore;
So may we with willing feet
Ever seek the mercy-seat.
- 3 As they offered gifts most rare
At that manger rude and bare;
So may we with holy joy,
Pure and free from sin's alloy,
All our costliest treasures bring,
Christ! to thee our heavenly King.

- 4 Holy Jesus! every day
Keep us in the narrow way;
And, when earthly things are past,
Bring our ransomed souls at last
Where they need no star to guide,
Where no clouds thy glory hide.
- 5 In the heavenly country bright,
Need they no created light;
Thou its Light, its Joy, its Crown,
Thou its Sun which goes not down,
There forever may we sing
Alleluias to our King.

And through the storm and danger's thrall,

Unless the heart implore relief,

The smitten soul be torn.

4 In sorrow true now let us pray

How sad on thee they fall!
Seen through thy gentle patience

They laid, my Lord, on thee.

3 My sins, my sins, my Saviour!
Their guilt I never knew
Till, with thee, in the desert

Till, with thee, in the garden

And saw the sweat-drops bloody
That told thy sorrow there.

1. Lord, when we bend be - fore thy throne, And our con - fes - sions pour,

Teach us to feel the sins we own, And hate what we de - plore. A - men.

2 Our broken spirits, pitying, see;
True penitence impart;
Then let a kindling glance from thee
Beam hope upon the heart.

3 When we disclose our wants in prayer,
May we our wills resign;
And not a thought our bosom share
Which is not wholly thine.

4 Let faith each weak petition fill,
And waft it to the skies,
And teach our hearts 'tis goodness still
That grants it, or denies.

I have an ad - vo - cate a - bove, A friend before the throne of love. A - men.

2 O Jesus, full of pardoning grace,
More full of grace than I of sin;
Yet once again I seek thy face:
Open thine arms and take me in;
And freely my backslidings heal,
And love the faithless sinner still.

3 Thou know'st the way to bring me back,
My fallen spirit to restore:
O for thy truth and mercy's sake,
Forgive, and bid me sin no more:
The ruins of my soul repair,
And make my heart a house of prayer.

Thy pardoning grace is rich and free : O God, be mer - ci - ful to me. Amen.

2 I smite upon my troubled breast,
With deep and conscious guilt oppressed;
Christ and his cross my only plea:
O God, be merciful to me.

3 Far off I stand with tearful eyes,
Nor dare uplift them to the skies;
But thou dost all my anguish see:
O God, be merciful to me.

4 Nor alms, nor needs that I have done,
Can for a single sin atone;
To Calvary alone I flee:
O God, be merciful to me.

5 And when, redeemed from sin and hell,
With all the ransomed throug I dwell,
My raptured song shall ever be,
God has been merciful to me.

Methought once turn'd his eyes on me, As near his cross I stood. Amen.

- 2 Sure, never till my latest breath
Can I forget that look ;
It seem'd to charge me with his death,
Though not a word he spoke.
- 3 My conscience felt and own'd the guilt,
And plunged me in despair ;
I saw my sins his blood had spilt,
And help'd to nail him there.
- 4 Alas ! I knew not what I did ;
But now my tears are vain :

- Where shall my trembling soul be hid ?
For I the Lord have slain.
- 5 A second look he gave, which said,
" I freely all forgive ;
This blood is for thy ransom paid,
I die that thou may'st live."

In all its blackest hue—
Such is the mystery of grace—
It seals my pardon too.

- 2 Inscribed upon the cross we see
In shining letters, God is love:
He bears our sins upon the tree;
He brings us mercy from above.
- 3 The cross—it takes our guilt away;
It holds the fainting spirit up;
It cheers with hope the gloomy day,
And sweetens every bitter cup.

- 4 It makes the coward spirit brave,
And nerves the feeble arm for fight;
It takes its terror from the grave,
And gilds the bed of death with light.

The measure and the pledge of love,
The sinner's refuge here below,
The angels' theme in heaven above.

Did e'er such love and sorrow meet?

Shrouded in the wind-ing sheet, Ly-ing in the rock a-lone, Hidden by the sealed stone. A-men.

Watching long the Magdalene ;
Early, ere the break of day,
Sorrowful she took her way
To the holy garden glade,
Where her buried Lord was laid.

I would solemn vigil spend :
Let me hew thee, Lord, a shrine
In this rocky heart of mine,
Where in pure embalmèd cell
None but thou may ever dwell.

True affection's offering ;
Close the door from sight and sound

And in patient watch remain

Angel guards all robed in white.

Yet once more, his own to save, Christ must sleep within the grave. A - men.

2 Fierce and deadly was the anguish
On the bitter cross he bore :
How did soul and body languish,
Till the toil of death was o'er!
But that toil, so fierce and dread,
Bruised and crushed the serpent's head.

3 Close and still the tomb that holds him
While in brief repose he lies ;
Deep the slumber that unfolds him,

Veiled awhile from mortal eyes :
Slumber such as needs must be
After hard-won victory.

4 So this night, with voice of sadness
Chant the anthem soft and low ;
Loftier strains of praise and gladness
From to-morrow's harps shall flow :
Death and hell at length are slain,
Christ hath triumphed, Christ doth reign.

To hail him in triumph descending the skies.
- 4 Who, who would live alway, away from his God;
Away from yon heaven, that blissful abode,
Where the rivers of pleasure flow o'er the bright plains,
And the noontide of glory eternally reigns;
- 5 Where the saints of all ages in harmony meet,
Their Saviour and brethren, transported, to greet;
While the anthems of rapture unceasingly roll,
And the smile of the Lord is the feast of the soul.

ANGELUS.

1. God of my life, O Lord most high, To thee by day and night I cry ;

Vouchsafe my mournful voice to hear, To my distress incline thine ear. A - men.

2 Like those whose strength and hopes are
They number me among the dead; [fled,
Like those who, shrouded in the grave,
From thee no more remembrance have.

3 Wilt thou by miracle revive
The dead, whom thou forsook'st alive?
Shall the mute grave thy love confess,
A mouldering tomb thy faithfulness?

4 To thee, O Lord, I cry forlorn,
My prayer prevents the early morn:
Why hast thou, Lord, my soul forsook,
Nor once vouchsafed a gracious look?

5 Companions dear and friends beloved
Far from my sight thou hast removed:
God of my life, O Lord most high,
Vouchsafed to hear my mournful cry!

And pri-vate counsel still af-ford In sor-row's dis-mal night. A - men.

2 Therefore my heart all grief defies,
My glory does rejoice;
My flesh shall rest, in hope to rise,
Waked by his powerful voice.

3 Thou, Lord, when I resign my breath,
My soul from hell shalt free;

Nor let thy Holy One in death
The least corruption see.

4 Thou shalt the paths of life display
Which to thy presence lead;
Where pleasures dwell without allay,
And joys that never fade.

2 O glorious hour ! O blest abode !
I shall be near and like my God,
And flesh and sense no more control
The sacred pleasures of the soul.

Then burst the chains with sweet surprise,
And in my Saviour's image rise.

1. It is not death to die ; To leave this wea - ry road,

And 'midst the brother - hood on high To be at home with God. A - men.

2 It is not death to close
The eye long dimmed by tears,
And wake, in glorious repose
To spend eternal years.

4 It is not death to fling
Aside this sinful dust,
And rise, on strong exulting wing,
To live among the just.

3 It is not death to bear
The wretch that sets us free
From dungeon chain, to breathe the air
Of boundless liberty.

5 Jesus, thou Prince of life !
Thy chosen cannot die ;
Like thee, they conquer in the strife,
To reign with thee on high.

Now no more can death appal,
Now no more the grave enthrall ;
Thou hast opened Paradise,
And in thee thy saints shall rise.

The Babe of Bethlehem!

3 Crown him the Lord of love!
Behold his hands and side,—
Those wounds, yet visible above,
In beauty glorified:
No angel in the sky
Can fully bear that sight,
But downward bends his wondering eye
At mysteries so bright.

And all be prayer and praise.
His reign shall know no end;
And round his piercèd feet
Fair flowers of Paradise extend Their fragrance ever sweet.

5 Crown him the Lord of heaven!

1. He's come, let ev - ery knee be bent, All hearts new joy re - sume,

Sing, ye redeem'd, with one consent, "The Comfort-er is come." A - men.

2 What greater gift, what greater love,
Could God on man bestow?
Angels for this rejoice above,
Let man rejoice below.

3 Hail, blessed Spirit! may each soul
Thy sacred influence feel;

Do thou each sinful thought control,
And fix our wavering zeal.

4 Thou to the conscience dost convey
Those checks which we should know;
Thy motions point to us the way;
Thou giv'st us strength to go.

The name of Jesus glorify,
Till every people call him Lord.

Thrill'd from the deep, dark cloud ;

At whose supreme command
From earth I rise, and seek the joys
At his right hand :

Its wisdom, fame, and power ;
And him my only portion make,
My shield and tower.

3 He by himself hath sworn,
I on his oath depend,
I shall, on angel-wings upborne,
To heaven ascend :
I shall behold his face,
I shall his power adore,
And sing the wonders of his grace
For evermore.

4 There dwells the Lord, our King,
The Lord, our righteousness,
Triumphant o'er the world and sin,
The Prince of Peace ;

On Sion's sacred height
His kingdom he maintains,
And, glorious with his saints in light,
For ever reigns.

5 The God who reigns on high
The great archangels sing ;
And, "Holy, holy, holy," cry,
"Almighty King,
Who was, and is the same,
And evermore shall be :
Jehovah, Father, great I AM,
We worship thee."

Give thanks to God on high ;
Hail, Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,

2 Up to the hills, where Christ is gone
To plead for all his saints,
Presenting at his Father's throne
Our songs and our complaints.

3 Thou art a God before whose sight
The wicked shall not stand ;
Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
Nor dwell at thy right hand.

4 But to thy house will I resort,
To taste thy mercies there ;
I will frequent thy holy court,
And worship in thy fear.

5 O may thy Spirit guide my feet,
In ways of righteousness,
Make every path of duty straight,
And plain before my face.

1. A-gain the Lord of life and light A-wakes the kind-ling ray,

Un-seals the eye-lids of the morn, And pours in-creas-ing day. A-men.

2 O what a night was that which wrapt
A heathen world in gloom!
O what a sun, which broke this day
Triumphant from the tomb!

3 The powers of darkness leagued in vain,
To bind our Lord in death;
He shook their kingdom, when he fell,
By his expiring breath.

4 And now his conquering chariot wheels
Ascend the lofty skies;

Broken beneath his powerful cross,
Death's iron sceptre lies.

5 This day be grateful homage paid,
And loud hosannas sung;
Let gladness dwell in every heart,
And praise on every tongue.

6 Ten thousand differing voices join
To hail this welcome morn,
Which scatters blessings from its wings,
On nations yet unborn.

SAINT PETER.

Thrice failing, yet repentant, thrice charged to keep thy fold.

1. O Lord, the Ho-ly In - no - cents Laid down for thee their in - fant life,

And martyrs brave and patient saints Have stood for thee in fire and strife. A-men.

- 2 We wear the cross they wore of old,
Our lips have learn'd like vows to make;
We need not die; we cannot fight;
What may we do for Jesus' sake?
- 3 O day by day each Christian child
Has much to do, without, within;
A death to die for Jesus' sake,
A weary war to wage with sin.
- 4 When deep within our swelling hearts,
The thoughts of pride and anger rise,
When bitter words are on our tongues,
And tears of passion in our eyes;

- 5 Then we may stay the angry blow,
Then we may check the hasty word,
Give gentle answers back again,
And fight a battle for our Lord.
- 6 With smiles of peace and looks of love,
Light in our dwellings we may make,
Bid kind good-humour brighten there,
And do all still for Jesus' sake.
- 7 There's not a child so weak and small
But has his little cross to take,
His little work of love and praise,
That he may do for Jesus' sake.

 King, Apostle, Saint, Confessor,

 Saintly maiden, godly matron,
 Widows who have watched to prayer,
 Joined in holy concert, singing
 To the Lord of all, are there.

3 They have come from tribulation,
 And have wash'd their robes in blood,
 Wash'd them in the blood of Jesus ;
 Tried they were, and firm they stood ;
 Mock'd, imprison'd, stoned, tormented,
 Sawn asunder, slain with sword,
 They have conquer'd death and Satan
 By the might of Christ the Lord.

4 Marching with thy cross their banner,
 They have triumph'd, following
 Thee, the Captain of salvation,
 Thee, their Saviour and their King,
 Gladly, Lord, with thee they suffer'd ;
 Gladly, Lord, with thee they died ;
 And by death to life immortal
 They were born and glorified.

5 Now they reign in heavenly glory,
 Now they walk in golden light,
 Now they drink, as from a river,
 Holy bliss and infinite :
 Love and peace they taste for ever,
 And all truth and knowledge see

 Of the blessèd Trinity.

One of the Three by right—
Love, majesty, and might—
The great I AM!

3 Martyrs! whose mystic legions
March o'er yon heavenly regions
In triumph round:
Wave high your banners, wave!
Your God, our Saviour, gave
For death itself a grave,
In hell profound!

4 Saints! in fair circles, casting
Rich trophies everlasting
At Jesus' feet,
Amidst our rude alarms,
We stretch forth suppliant arms,
That we, too, safe from harms,
In heaven may meet!

5 Saviour! in glory beaming,
With radiance brightly streaming,
Enthroned in power,
Grant, by thy awful name,
That we through flood and flame
The Gospel may proclaim,
Till life's last hour.

The heaven-built towers of Salem rise ;

I view her mansions that contain
The angel host, a beauteous train,
And shine with cloudless day.

3 Thither, from earth's remotest end,
Lo! the redeem'd of God ascend,
Borne on immortal wing ;
There, crown'd with everlasting joy,
In ceaseless hymns their tongues employ,
Before th' Almighty King.

4 Mother of cities! o'er thy head
Bright peace, with healing wings outspread,
For evermore shall dwell :
Let me, blest seat! my name behold
Among thy citizens enroll'd,
And bid the world farewell.

1. Pleas-ant are thy courts a - bove, In the land of light and love ;

Pleas-ant are thy courts be - low, In this land of sin and woe.

O my spir - it longs and faints For the con-verse of thy saints,

For the brightness of thy face, King of glo - ry, God of grace! A - men.

2 Happy birds that sing and fly
Round thy altars, O Most High !
Happier souls that find a rest,
In a heavenly Father's breast !
Like the wandering dove, that found
No repose on earth around,
They can to their ark repair,
And enjoy it ever there.

3 Happy souls ! their praises flow,
Ever in this vale of woe ;
Waters in the desert rise,
Manna feeds them from the skies ;

On they go from strength to strength,
Till they reach thy throne at length ;
At thy feet adoring fall,
Who hast led them safe through all.

4 Lord, be mine this prize to win ;
Guide me through a world of sin,
Keep me by thy saving grace,
Give me at thy side a place ;
Sun and shield alike thou art ;
Guide and guard my erring heart ;
Grace and glory flow from thee ;
Shower, O shower them, Lord on me.

1. The Church's one found - a - tion Is Je - sus Christ her Lord ;

She is his new cre - a - tion By wa - ter and the word :

From heav'n he came and sought her To be his ho - ly bride ;

With his own blood he bought her, And for her life he died. A - men.

2 Elect from every nation,
Yet one o'er all the earth,
Her charter of salvation
One Lord, one faith, one birth ;
One holy name she blesses,
Partakes one holy food,
And to one hope she presses,
With every grace endued.

3 Though with a scornful wonder,
Men see her sore opprest,
By schisms rent asunder,
By heresies distrest ;
Yet saints their watch are keeping,
Their cry goes up, " How long ?"
And soon the night of weeping
Shall be the morn of song.

4 'Mid toil and tribulation,
And tumult of her war,
She waits the consummation
Of peace for evermore ;
Till with the vision glorious
Her longing eyes are blest,
And the great Church victorious
Shall be the Church at rest.

5 Yet she on earth hath union
With God the Three in One,
And mystic sweet communion
With those whose rest is won :
O happy ones and holy !
Lord, give us grace that we
Like them, the meek and lowly,
On high may dwell with thee.

Like us, un-honour'd and unknown, He came to dwell on earth. A-men.

In wisdom's path of peace;
Like him in grace and knowledge grow,
As years and strength increase.

When mothers round him press'd ;
Their infants in his arms he took,
And on his bosom bless'd.

Beneath his watchful eye,

May we for ever lie.

The children sang around ;
For joy they pluck'd the palms, and
Their garments on the ground. [strow'd

Should we forget our Saviour's praise,

What pains he had to bear,
But we believe it was for us
He hung and suffered there.

He died to make us good,
That we might go at last to heaven,
Saved by his precious blood.

To pay the price of sin,
He only could unlock the gate
Of heaven, and let us in.

And we must love him too,
And trust in his redeeming blood,
And try his works to do.

2 He came down to earth from heaven
Who is God and Lord of all,
And his sheeter was a stable,
And his cradle was a stall ;
With the poor, and mean, and lowly,
Lived on earth our Saviour holy.

3 And, through all his wondrous childhood,
He would honour and obey,
Love, and watch the lowly maiden
In whose gentle arms he lay ;
Christian children all must be Mild, obedient, good as he.

4 For he is our childhood's pattern,
Day by day like us he grew ;
He was little, weak, and helpless,
Tears and smiles like us he knew,
And he feeleth for our sadness,
And he shareth in our gladness.

5 And our eyes at last shall see him,
Through his own redeeming love,
For that child so dear and gentle
Is our Lord in heaven above ;
And he leads his children on
To the place where he is gone.

6 Not in that poor lowly stable,
With the oxen standing by,
We shall see him ; but in heaven,
Set at God's right hand on high ;
When like stars his children crowned
All in white shall wait around.

1. Whate'er my God ordains is right; His will is ev - er just; Howe'er he orders now my cause, I will be still and trust, He is my God; Tho' dark my road,

He holds me that I shall not fall, Wherefore to him I leave it all Amen.

2 Whate'er my God ordains is right ;
He never will deceive ;
He leads me by the proper path,
And so to him I cleave,
And take content
What he hath sent ;
His hand can turn my griefs away,
And patiently I wait his day.

3 Whate'er my God ordains is right ;
Though I the cup must drink
That bitter seems to my faint heart,
I will not fear nor shrink ;
Tears pass away
With dawn of day ;
Sweet comfort yet shall fill my heart,
And pain and sorrow all depart.

4 Whate'er my God ordains is right ;
My Light, my Life is he,
Who cannot will me aught but good ;
I trust him utterly ;
For well I know,
In joy or woe,
We soon shall see, as sunlight clear,
How faithful was our Guardian here.

5 Whate'er my God ordains is right ;
Here will I take my stand,
Though sorrow, need, or death make earth
For me a desert land.
My Father's care
Is round me there,
He holds me that I shall not fall ;
And so to him I leave it all.

ST. MARYS.

1. Lord, let me know my term of days, How soon my life will end :

The numerous train of ills disclose, Which this frail state at - tend. A - men.

- 2 My life, thou know'st, is but a span,
A cipher sums my years ;
And every man, in best estate,
But vanity appears.
- 3 Man, like a shadow, vainly walks,
With fruitless cares oppress'd ;
He heaps up wealth, but cannot tell
By whom 'twill be possess'd.
- 4 Why then should I on worthless toys
With anxious cares attend ?

- On thee alone my steadfast hope
Shall ever, Lord, depend.
- 5 Lord, hear my cry, accept my tears,
And listen to my prayer,
Who sojourn like a stranger here,
As all my fathers were.
- 6 O spare me yet a little time ;
My wasted strength restore,
Before I vanish quite from hence
And shall be seen no more.

DUNDEE.

1. Hear what the voice from heav'n declares To those in Christ who die :

Released from all their earthly cares, They'll reign with him on high. A - men.

- Then why lament departed friends,
Or shake at death's alarms ?
Death's but the servant Jesus sends
To call us to his arms.
- If sin be pardon'd, we're secure,
Death hath no sting beside ;
The law gave sin its strength and power,
But Christ, our ransom, died.

- 4 The grave of all his saints he bless'd,
When in the grave he lay :
And, rising thence, their hopes he raised
To everlasting day.
- 5 Then, joyfully, while life we have,
To Christ, our life, we'll sing,
"Where is thy victory, O grave ?
And where, O death, thy sting ?"

A calm and un-dis-turb'd re - pose, Un-broken by the last of foes. Amen.

- 2 Asleep in Jesus! O how sweet
To be for such a slumber meet;
With holy confidence to sing
That death hath lost its painful sting!
- 3 Asleep in Jesus! peaceful rest!
Whose waking is supremely blest;
No fear, no woe shall dim that hour
That manifests the Saviour's power.

- 4 Asleep in Jesus! O for me
May such a blissful refuge be!
Securely shall my ashes lie,
Waiting the summons from on high.
- 5 Asleep in Jesus! far from thee
Thy kindred and their graves may be;
But there is still a blessed sleep,
From which none ever wakes to weep.

PEACE.

1. Not for the dead in Christ we weep; Their sor-rows now are o'er;

The sea is calm, the tem-pest past, On that e - ter - nal shore. A-men.

- 2 Their peace is seal'd, their rest is sure,
Within that better home;
A while we weep and linger here,
Then follow to the tomb.
- 3 And though no vision'd dream of bliss
Nor trance of rapture show

- Where, on the bosom of their God,
They rest from human woe;
- 4 Jesus! our shadowy path illumine,
And teach the chasten'd mind
To welcome all that's left of good,
To all that's lost resign'd.

MISSION.

1. When, Lord, to this our western land, Led by thy pro - vi - den - tial hand,

Our wandering fa - thers came, Their ancient homes, their friends in youth,

Sent forth the heralds of thy truth, To keep them in thy name. A-men.

2 Then, through our solitary coast,
The desert features soon were lost ;
Thy temples there arose ;
Our shores, as culture made them fair,
Were hallowed by thy rites, by prayer,
And blossomed as the rose.

3 And O may we repay this debt
To regions solitary yet
Within our spreading land :
There, brethren, from our common home,
Still westward, like our fathers, roam ;
Still guided by thy hand.

4 Saviour, we own this debt of love :
O shed thy spirit from above,
To move each Christian breast ;
Till heralds shall thy truth proclaim,
And temples rise to fix thy name,
Through all our desert west.

And Spirit, evermore.
- 3 O joy all joys beyond,
To see the Lamb who died,
And count each sacred wound
In hands and feet and side ;

- To give to him the praise
Of every triumph won,
And sing through endless days
The great things he hath done.
- 4 Look up, ye saints of God,
Nor fear to tread below
The path your Saviour trod
Of daily toil and woe ;
Wait but a little while
In uncomplaining love,
His own most gracious smile
Shall welcome you above.

1. Forth in thy name, O Lord, I go, My dai - ly la - bour to pur - sue,

Thee, on - ly thee, re - solved to know, In all I think, or speak, or do. A - men.

2 The task thy wisdom hath assigned
O let me cheerfully fulfil;
In all my works thy presence find,
And prove thy good and perfect will.

3 Thee may I set at my right hand,
Whose eyes my inmost substance see;
And labour on at thy command,
And offer all my works to thee.

4 Give me to bear thy easy yoke,
And every moment watch and pray;
And still to things eternal look,
And hasten to thy glorious day.

5 Fain would I still for thee employ
Whate'er thy bounteous grace hath given,
Would run my course with even joy,
And closely walk with thee to heaven.

2 His tender love and watchful care
Shall free thee from the fowler's snare,
And from the noisome pestilence ;
He over thee his wings shall spread,
And cover thy unguarded head ;
His truth shall be thy strong defence.

3 Because, with well-placed confidence,
Thou mak'st the Lord thy sure defence,
Thy refuge, even God most high ;
Therefore no ill on thee shall come,
Nor to thy heaven-protected home
Shall overwhelming plagues draw nigh.

1. O God, my gracious God, to thee My morning pray'rs shall offer'd be,

For thee my thirs-ty soul doth pant ; My faint-ing flesh implores thy grace,

As in a dry and bar-ren place, Where I re-freshing waters want. Amen.

2 O to my longing eyes once more
That view of glorious power restore,
Which thy majestic house displays ;
Because to me thy wondrous love
Than life itself does dearer prove,
My lips shall always speak thy praise.

3 My life, while I that life enjoy,
In blessing God I will employ,
With lifted hands adore his name :
As with its choicest food supplied,
My soul shall be full satisfied,
While I with joy his praise proclaim.

4 When down I lie, sweet sleep to find,
Thou, Lord, art present to my mind,
And when I wake in dead of night,
Because thou still dost succour bring,
Beneath the shadow of thy wing
I rest with safety and delight.

God will provide for sacrifice.

MORNING HYMN.

1. A-wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run ;

Shake off dull sloth, and joy - ful rise To pay thy morning.sac - ri - fice. A-men.

2 Redeem thy mis-spent time that's past;
Live this day, as if 'twere thy last;
'To improve thy talents take due care;
'Gainst the great day thyself prepare.

3 Let all thy converse be sincere,
Thy conscience as the noon-day clear;
Think how the all-seeing God, thy ways
And all thy secret thoughts surveys.

4 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long unwearied sing
"Glory to thee, eternal King."

5 I wake, I wake, ye heavenly choir,
May your devotion me inspire,
That I, like you, my age may spend,
Like you, may on my God attend.

6 Glory to thee, who safe hast kept,
And hast refresh'd me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake,
I may of endless light partake.

7 Lord, I my vows to thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first spring of thought and will,
And with thyself my spirit fill.

3 Direct, control, suggest this day
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my powers, with all their might,
In thy sole glory may unite.

Praise him, all creatures here below;
Praise him above, angelic host:
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

EVENING HYMN.

Evening.

Keep me, O keep me, King of kings, Under thine own al-mighty wings. A-men.

2 Forgive me, Lord, for thy dear Son,
The ills that I this day have done ;
That with the world, myself, and thee,
I, ere I sleep, at peace may be.

3 Teach me to live, that I may dread
The grave as little as my bed ;
Teach me to die, that so I may
Triumphing rise at the last day.

4 O may my soul on thee repose,
And with sweet sleep mine eyelids close :
Sleep, that may me more vigorous make
To serve my God, when I awake.

5 When in the night I sleepless lie,
My soul with heavenly thoughts supply ;
Let no ill dreams disturb my rest,
No powers of darkness me molest.

6 O when shall I, in endless day,
For ever chase dark sleep away,
And hymns divine with angels sing,
Glory to thee, eternal King.

2 Swift to its close ebbs out life's little day;
Earth's joys grow dim, its glories pass away,
Change and decay in all around I see;
O thou who changest not, abide with me.

3 I need thy presence every passing hour;
What but thy grace can foil the tempter's power?
Who, like thyself, my guide and stay can be?
Through cloud and sunshine, Lord, abide with me.

4 I fear no foe, with thee at hand to bless:
Ills have no weight, and tears no bitterness.
Where is death's sting? where, grave, thy victory?
I triumph still, if thou abide with me.

5 Hold thou thy cross before my closing eyes;
Shine through the gloom, and point me to the skies;
Heaven's morning breaks, and earth's vain shadows flee;
In life, in death, O Lord, abide with me.

4 So now beneath his eye
Would calmly rest,
Without a wish or thought
Abiding in the breast;

Whate'er betide;
Dead to herself, and dead
In him to all beside.
6 Thus would I live: yet now

Of that eternal choir.
4 Yet, Lord, to thy dear will
If thou attune the heart,

EVENSONG.

faint the sun-light glows: O Brightness of thy Fa-ther's glo-ry, thou

E - ter - nal Light of light, be with us now: Where thou art pre-sent darkness can-not be: Midnight is glorious noon, O Lord, with thee. A-men.

2 Our changeful lives are ebbing to an end,
Onward to darkness and to death we tend:
O Conqueror of the grave, be thou our guide,
Be thou our light in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

3 Thou, who in darkness walking didst appear
Upon the waves, and thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail,
And earthly hopes and human succours fail;
When all is dark may we behold thee nigh,
And hear thy voice—"Fear not, for it is I."

4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
Its glories wane, its pageants fade away;
In that last sunset when the stars shall fall,
May we arise awaken'd by thy call,
With thee, O Lord, for ever to abide
In that blest day which has no eventide.

Let us now a bless - ing seek On th'approaching ho - ly day;

Day of all the week the best, Em - blem of e - ter - nal rest! A - men.

Through the week our praise demand;
Guarded by almighty power,
Fed and guided by his hand:
Though ungrateful we have been,
And repaying love with sin.
- 3 While we pray for pardoning grace,
Through the dear Redeemer's name,
Show thy reconciled face,
Drive away our sin and shame;
From our worldly cares set free,
May we rest this night with thee.
- 4 When the morn shall bid us rise,
May we feel thy presence near;
May thy glory meet our eyes,
When we in thy house appear:
There afford us, Lord, a taste
Of our everlasting feast.
- 5 May thy Gospel's joyful sound
Conquer sinners, comfort saints;
Make the fruits of grace abound,
Bring relief for all complaints
Such the days of rest we love,
Till we join the Church above.

REDHEAD, No. 4.

1. The wing-ed her-ald of the day Proclaims the morn's approaching ray :

So Christ the Lord re-news his call, To end-less life a-wakening all. Amen.

- 2 "Take up thy bed," to each he cries,
Who sick, or wrapp'd in slumber, lies :
"Be chaste, and, living soberly,
Watch ye, for I the Lord am nigh."
3 With earnest cry, with tearful care,
Call we the Lord to hear our prayer ;

- While supplication, pure and deep,
Forbids each chastened heart to sleep.

Let every ill that darkness brought
Beneath its shade, now come to naught!

Received the gift divine,
And still that light she lifteth

Where gems of truth are stored,
It is the heaven-drawn picture
Of Christ the living Word.

Before God's host unfurled;
It shineth like a beacon
Above the darkling world;

- It is the chart and compass
That o'er life's surging sea,
Mid mists, and rocks, and quicksands,
Still guide O, Christ, to thee.
- 4 O make thy Church, dear Saviour,
A lamp of burnished gold,
To bear before the nations
Thy true light as of old;
O teach thy wandering pilgrims
By this their path to trace,
Till, clouds and darkness ended,
They see thee face to face.

1. The voice of free grace Cries, Es-cape to the mountain; For Adam's lost race Christ hath o-pened a foun-tain: For sin and un-clean-ness And

Cho; Alle-lu-ia to the Lamb Who hath eve-ry trans-gres-sion, His blood flows most free-ly In streams of sal-bought us our par-don; We'll praise him a-gain when we pass o-ver va-tion, His blood flows most free-ly In streams of sal-va-tion. A-men.

Jor-dan, We'll praise him a-gain when we pass o-ver Jor-dan.

2 Ye souls that are wounded,
To Jesus repair;
He calls you in mercy,
And can you forbear?
Though your sins be as scarlet,
Still flee to the mountain,
That blood can remove them
Which streams from this fountain,
Alleluia, etc.

3 O Jesus! ride onward,
Triumphantly glorious;
O'er sin, death, and hell
Thou'rt more than victorious;

Thy name is the theme
Of the great congregation,
While angels and saints
Raise the shout of salvation,
Alleluia, etc.

4 With joy shall we stand
When escaped to that shore;
With our harps in our hand
We will praise him the more;
We'll range the sweet fields
On the banks of the river,
And sing of salvation
For ever and ever. Alleluia, etc.

At Je-sus' feet to lay it down, To lay my soul at Je-sus' feet! A-men.

- 2 Rest for my soul I long to find ;
Saviour of all, if mine thou art,
Give me thy meek and lowly mind,
And stamp thine image on my heart.
- 3 Break off the yoke of inbred sin,
And fully set my spirit free ;
I cannot rest till pure within,
Till I am wholly lost in thee.

- 4 Fain would I learn of thee, my God ;
Thy light and easy burden prove,
The cross, all stain'd with hallow'd blood,
The labour of thy dying love.
- 5 I would, but thou must give the power,
My heart from every sin release ;
Bring near, bring near the joyful hour,
And fill me with thy perfect peace.

2 By our own might we naught can do ;
 To trust it were sure losing ;
 For us must fight the Right and True,
 The Man of God's own choosing.
 Dost ask for his name ?
 Christ Jesus we claim ;
 The Lord God of hosts ;
 The only God : vain boasts
 Of others fall before him.

3 What though the troops of Satan fill'd
 The world with hostile forces ?
 E'en then our fears should all be still'd :
 In God are our resources.
 The world and its King
 No terrors can bring :
 Their threats are no worth :
 Their doom is now gone forth :
 A single world can quell them.

4 God's word through all shall have free
 And ask no man's permission : [sway,
 The Spirit and his gifts convey Strength to defy perdition.
 The body to kill,
 Wife, children, at wil,
 The wicked have power :
 Yet lasts it but an hour !
 The kingdom's ours for ever !

 For ever be outpouring
 One chorus from the heavenly host
 And saints on earth adoring !
 That chorus resound
 To earth's utmost bound,
 And spread from shore to shore,
 Like stormy ocean's roar,
 Through endless ages rolling.

1. Pray'r is the soul's sin-cere de-sire, Ut-ter'd or un-ex-press'd;

2 Prayer is the burden of a sigh,
The falling of a tear;
The upward glancing of an eye
When none but God is near.

3 Prayer is the simplest form of speech,
That infant lips can try;
Prayer, the sublimest strains that reach
The Majesty on high.

4 Prayer is the Christian's vital breath,
The Christian's native air;
The watch-word at the gates of death,—
He enters heaven with prayer.

5 Prayer is the contrite sinner's voice,
Returning from his ways;

While angels in their songs rejoice,
And cry, "Behold, he prays!"

6 In prayer, on earth, the saints are one;
They're one in word and mind;
When with the Father and the Son
Sweet fellowship they find.

7 O Thou, by whom we come to God,
The Life, the Truth, the Way,
The path of prayer thyself hast trod;
Lord, teach us how to pray.

8 To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
The God whom we adore,
Be glory, as it was, is now,
And shall be evermore.

2 Awake, my glory; harp and lute,
No longer let your strings be mute:
And I, my tuneful part to take,
Will with the early dawn awake.

3 Thy praises, Lord, I will resound
To all the listening nations round :

Thy mercy highest heaven transcends,
Thy truth beyond the clouds extends.

And as thy glory fills the sky,
So let it be on earth displayed,
Till thou art here, as there, obeyed.

The prais-es of my God shall still My heart and tongue employ. A-men.

2 Of his deliverance I will boast,
Till all that are distressed
From my example comfort take,
And charm their griefs to rest.

3 O magnify the Lord with me,
With me exalt his name ;
When in distress to him I call'd,
He to my rescue came.

4 The angel of the Lord encamps
Around the good and just ;

Deliverance he affords to all
Who on his succour trust.

5 O make but trial of his love,
Experience will decide
How blest they are, and only they,
Who in his truth confide.

6 Fear him, ye saints; and you will then
Have nothing else to fear;
Make you his service your delight,
Your wants shall be his care.

He near my soul has always stood;

2 Thou my deliverer art, my God;
My trust is in thy mighty power:
Thou art my shield from foes abroad,
At home my safeguard and my tower.

To thee I will address my prayer,
To whom all praise we justly owe;
So shall I, by thy watchful care,
Be guarded safe from every foe.

Defend and comfort me.

Through all my life extend,
That life to him I will devote,
And in his temple spend.

Perfect, and right, and pure, and good—
A copy, Lord, of thine!

5 Thy nature, gracious Lord, impart ;
Come quickly from above ;
Write thy new name upon my heart,
Thy new, best name of Love.

WILTSHIRE.

1. There is a fold whence none can stray, And pas-tures o-ver green, Where sul-try sun, or stormy day, Or night, is nev-er seen. A-men.

2 Far up the everlasting hills,
In God's own light, it lies;
His smile its vast dimension fills
With joy that never dies.

3 One narrow vale, one darksome wave,
Divides that land from this;
I have a Shepherd pledged to save,
And bear me home to bliss.

4 Soon at his feet my soul will lie,
In life's last struggling breath;
But I shall only seem to die,
I shall not taste of death.

5 Far from this guilty world, to be Exempt from toil and strife;
To spend eternity with thee,—
My Saviour, this is life!

2 On the lion vainly roaring,
On his young thy foot shall tread;
And, the dragon's den exploring,
Thou shalt bruise the serpent's head.

3 Since, with pure and firm affection,
Thou on God hast set thy love,
With the wings of his protection
He will shield thee from above.

4 Thou shalt call on him in trouble,
He will hearken, he will save;
Here for grief reward thee double,
Crown with life beyond the grave.

And shall I fear to own his cause, Or blush to speak his name? Amen.

On flowery beds of ease,
While others fought to win the prize,
And sailed through bloody seas?
- 3 Are there no foes for me to face?
Must I not stem the flood?
Is this vile world a friend to grace,
To help me on to God?
- 4 Sure I must fight if I would reign;
Increase my courage, Lord;

- I'll bear the cross, endure the pain,
Supported by thy word.
- 5 Thy saints, in all this glorious war,
Shall conquer, though they die;
They view the triumph from afar,
And seize it with their eye.

And all thy armies shine
In robes of victory through the skies,
The glory shall be thine.

Rise to life from earth and sea:
All the powers of nature, shaken
By his looks, prepare to flee:

Behold his wrath prevailing;

And sigh are unavailing:

Trembling, they stand before the throne,
All unprepared to meet him.

When heaven and earth shall pass

3 A moment's time, the twinkling of an eye,

In buoyant exultation, through the sky,

Arrayed in beauteous guise, [that pours,

To beauteous Paradise, [there,
Where sense can scarce its full fruition
Or tongue for praise suffice; [bear,
Glad alleluias ringing
With rapturous rebound,
And rich hosannas singing
Eternity's long round.

8 Unnumber'd choirs before the Lamb's high throne
There shout the jubilee,
With loud resounding peal and sweetest tone,
In blissful ecstasy:
A hundred thousand voices
Take up the wondrous song;
Eternity rejoices
God's praises to prolong.

ST. MATTHIAS.

1. Thou hidden love of God, whose height, Whose depth unfathom'd no man knows:

I see from far thy beauteous light, In - ly I sigh for thy re - pose:

My heart is pain'd, nor can it be At rest till it find rest in thee. Amen.

2 Is there a thing beneath the sun
That strives with thee my heart to share?
Ah! tear it thence, and reign alone,
The Lord of every motion there.
Then shall my heart from earth be free,
When it hath found repose in thee.

3 O hide this self from me, that I
No more, but Christ in me, may live ;
My vile affections crucify,
Nor let one darling lust survive ;
In all things nothing may I see,
Nothing desire, or seek, but thee.

4 Each moment draw from earth away
My heart, that lowly waits thy call :
Speak to my inmost soul, and say,
I am thy love, thy God, thy all:
To feel thy power, to hear thy voice,
To taste thy love, be all my choice.

2 Rebel, ye waves, and o'er the land
With threatening aspect roar;
The Lord uplifts his awful hand,
And chains you to the shore.

3 Howl, winds of night, your force combine;
Without his high behest,
Ye shall not, in the mountain pine,
Disturb the sparrow's nest.

4 His voice sublime is heard afar,
In distant peals it dies;
He yokes the whirlwind to his car,
And sweeps the howling skies.

5 Ye nations, bend, in reverence bend;
Ye monarchs, wait his nod,
And bid the choral song ascend
To celebrate your God.

And yet thou mak'st the infant tongue

With stars of feebler light;

4 O what is man, that, Lord, thou lov'st
To keep him in thy mind?
Or what his offspring, that thou prov'st
To them so wondrous kind?

5 O thou to whom all creatures bow
Within this earthly frame,
Through all the world how great art thou?
How glorious is thy name!

2 O Prince of Life! I know

Wherefore I will not shrink
From the grave's awful brink;

3 To me the darksome tomb
Is but a narrow room.
Where I may rest in peace, from sorrow free.
Thy death shall give me power
To cry in that dark hour,
O Death! O Grave! where is your victory?

4 My Jesus, day by day
Help me to watch and pray
Beside the tomb wherein, my heart, thou'rt laid.
Thy bitter death shall be
My constant memory,
My guide at last into death's awful shade.

Stand up, my soul, shake off thy fears.....	124	Thou, whom my soul admires above.....	459
Star of peace, to wanderers weary.....	264	Thou, whose almighty word.....	146
Stay, thou long-suffering Spirit, stay.....	387	Through all the changing scenes of life....	415
Sun of my soul, thou Saviour dear.....	336	Through the day thy love has spared us....	342
Supreme in wisdom as in power.....	475	Thus God declares his sovereign will.....	110
Sweet is the work, my God, my King.....	150	Thy bitter anguish o'er.....	526
Sweet Saviour, bless us ere we go.....	338	Thy chastening wrath, O Lord, restrain....	51
Sweet the moments, rich in blessing.....	84	Thy kingdom come, O God.....	7
Tender Shepherd, thou hast stilled.....	263	Thy presence, Lord hath me supplied.....	448
That day of wrath, that dreadful day.....	3	Thy way, not mine, O Lord.....	254
The ancient law departs.....	32	Thy word is to my feet a lamp.....	366
The atoning work is done.....	118	Time hastens on, ye longing saints.....	348
The Church's one foundation.....	202	'Tis finished: so the Saviour cried.....	85
The day is gently sinking to a close.....	349	'Tis my happiness below.....	445
The day is past and gone.....	334	To bless thy chosen race.....	285
The day is past and over.....	341	To hail thy rising, Sun of life.....	27
The day of praise is done.....	346	To him who for our sins was slain.....	109
The day of resurrection.....	105	To Jesus, our exalted Lord.....	204
The gentle Saviour calls.....	212	To our Redeemer's glorious name.....	372
The Head that once was crowned with thorns.....	114	To Zion's hill I lift my eyes.....	316
The God of Abraham praise.....	141	To thy temple I repair.....	163
The God of life, whose constant care.....	30	To-morrow, Lord, is thine.....	327
The heavens declare thy glory, Lord.....	361	Triumphant Sion! lift thy head.....	192
The King of love my Shepherd is.....	464	Up to the hills I lift mine eyes.....	321
The Lord descended from above.....	500	Watchman! tell us of the night.....	43
The Lord hath spoke, the mighty God.....	11	We build with fruitless cost, unless.....	322
The Lord himself, the mighty Lord.....	438	We give immortal praise.....	143
The Lord my pasture shall prepare.....	504	We give thee but thine own.....	299
The Lord our God is clothed with might...	516	We sing the praise of him who died.....	78
The Lord, the only God, is great.....	196	Weary of earth, and laden with my sin....	67
		Weary of wandering from my God.....	70
		Welcome, sweet day of rest.....	147
		What a strange and wondrous story.....	223

204	Angels,	This is an adaptation from a tune written by Orlando Gibbons in 1623 for George Withers' "Hymns and Songs of the Church." In this work there are two versions of the tune, one as a long metre, the other as a six-line tune. They are written in common time, but a triple time effect is given to them by the intermixing of the minims and semibreves. In one instance, the tune is set to the words; "Thus Angels Sung, and Thus Sing We," from which originated the name of the tune. When the tune was printed in more modern notation, the triple time was considered as quite in accordance with the idea of the author, and so was used for nearly a hundred and fifty years. The common-time modern version cannot be regarded as correct.	L. M.

John Darwell was vicar of Walsall, England, and on the occasion of a new organ being opened in his church, in the year 1773, he preached a sermon, in which he recommended that the hymns be sung quicker than generally, as he thought that "six verses might be sung in the same space of time that four usually are." After the sermon the 150th Psalm was sung to a new tune of Darwell's composing. This was the first performance of "Darwell."	6, 6, 6, 6, 4, 4, 4, 4.

		The original of this tune forms the eighth of those composed by Tallis for Archbishop Parker's Psalter about the year 1565. It is somewhat long and tedious. Ravenscroft reduced it to its present form. Subsequently by various arrangers it was much changed and perverted: of late, however, the tune is generally accepted in the form as given by Ravenscroft.

WILLIAM RUSSELL, MUS. B.

From Psalms xlv. lxxix. cx.

1. Thy seat, O God, endureth for ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right—sceptre.
 2. Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity: wherefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
 3. My song shall be alway of the loving-kindness of the Lord: with my mouth will I ever be showing thy truth from one generation to another.
 4. For I have said, Mercy shall be set up for ever: thy truth shalt thou establish in the heavens.
 5. The Lord is our defence: the Holy one of Israel is our king.
 6. Thou spakest sometime in visions unto thy saints, and saidst: I have laid help upon one that is mighty, I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
 7. I will set his dominion in the sea: and his right hand in the floods.
 8. And I will make him my first-born: higher than the kings of the earth.
 9. The Lord said unto my Lord: Sit thou on my right hand, until I make thine enemies thy footstool.
 10. The Lord shall send the rod of thy power out of Zion: be thou ruler, even in the midst among thine enemies.
 11. In the day of thy power shall the people offer thee free-will offerings with an holy worship: the dew of thy birth is of the womb of the morning.
 12. The Lord sware, and will not repent: Thou art a Priest forever, after the order of Melchisedech.
- Glory be to the Father, and to the Son: and to the Holy Ghost: As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be: world without end. Amen.

2. Blessed is the man unto whom the Lord im- | puteth no | sin: and in whose | spirit there | is no | guile.
3. Put me not to rebuke, O Lord, | in thine | anger: neither chasten me in thy | hea- | vy dis- | pleasure:
4. For thine arrows stick | fast in | me: and thy | hand— | presseth me | sore.
5. My wickednesses are gone | over my | head: and are like a sore burden, too | heavy for | me to | bear.
6. I will con- | fess my | wickedness: and be | sorry | for my | sin.
7. Haste | thee to | help me: O Lord | God of | my sal- | vation.
8. Out of the deep have I called unto | thee, O | Lord: Lord, | hear- | my- | voice.
9. Let thine ears | be at- | tentive: to the voice | of my | suppli | cations.
10. If thou, Lord, shouldest be extreme to mark what is | done a- | miss: O | Lord,— | who shall | stand?
11. But there is for- | givenness with | thee: that | thou— | mayest be | feared.

Glory be to the Father, | and to the | Son: and | to the | Ho-ly | Ghost;

From Psalms xxii. lxi. xl.

1. My God! my God! look upon me; why hast thou for- | saken|me: and art so far from my health, and from the | words of | my com- | plaint?
2. But | thou art|holy: O Thou that inhabitest the | praises of | Isra|el.
3. I am a worm, and | no— | man: a reproach of men, and des-|pised | of the | people.
4. All they that see me | laugh me to | scorn: they shoot out the lip, they | shake the | head,— | saying,
5. He trusted in God, that he | would de- | liver him: let him deliver him, | if— | he will | have him.
6. The counsel of the wicked layeth | siege a- | gainst me: they pierced my | hands— | and my | feet.
7. They part my | garments a- | mong them: and cast | lots up-|on my| vesture.
8. But be not thou far from | me, O | Lord: O my | strength, haste|thee to | help me.
9. Thy rebuke hath broken my heart, I am | full of|heaviness: I looked for some to have pity on me, but there was no man, neither | found I | any to | comfort me.
10. They gave me | gall to | eat: and when I was thirsty, they | gave me| vinegar to | drink.
11. Sacrifices and meat-offering thou | wouldest | not: but mine | ears hast | thou— | opened.
12. Burnt-offering and sacrifice for sin hast thou | not re- | quired: then| said I | Lo, I | come.

3. Christ being raised from the dead, | dieth no | more: death hath no

That it may please thee to succour, help, and comfort, all who are in danger, necessity, and | tribu- | lation;

We beseech thee to | hear us, good | Lord.

That it may please thee to preserve all who travel by land or by water, all women in the perils of child-birth, all sick persons, and young children; and to show thy pity upon all | prisoners and | captives;

We beseech thee to | hear us, good | Lord.

The Litany.

That it may please thee to defend, and provide for, the fatherless children, and widows, and all who are desolate and op - pressed;

That it may please thee to have mercy | upon | all men;

We beseech thee to | hear us, good | Lord.

That it may please thee to forgive our enemies, persecutors, and slanderers, and to | turn their | hearts;

We beseech thee to | hear us, good | Lord.

That it may please thee to give and preserve to our use the kindly fruits of the earth, so that in due time we | may en- | joy them;

We beseech thee to | hear us, good | Lord.

That it may please thee to give us true repentance; to forgive us all our sins, negligences, and ignorances; and to endue us with the grace of thy Holy Spirit to amend our lives according to thy | holy | Word;

We beseech thee to | hear us, good | Lord.

The Litany.

O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;

Grant us thy peace.

O Lamb of God, who takest away the sins of the world;

¶ Then shall the Minister, and the People with him, say the Lord's Prayer.

OUR Father, who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy Name.
 Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, As it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, As we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; But deliver us from evil. Amen.

O Lord, deal not with us according to our sins.

Neither reward us according to our in - i - qui - ties.

Let us pray.

O GOD, merciful Father, who despisest not the sighing of a contrite heart, nor the desire of such as are sorrowful; Mercifully assist our prayers which we make before thee in all our troubles and adversities, whensoever they oppress us; and graciously hear us, that those evils which the craft and subtilty of the devil or man worketh against us, may, by thy good providence, be brought to nought; that we thy servants, being hurt by no persecutions, may evermore give thanks unto thee in thy holy Church; through Je-sus Christ, our Lord.

The Litany.

O Lord, arise, help us, and deliver us for thy Name's sake.

O GOD, we have heard with our ears, and our fathers have declared unto us, the noble works that thou didst in their days, and in the old time before them.

O Lord, arise, help us and deliver us for thine honour.

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

From our enemies defend us, O Christ.

Graciously look upon our af - flic - tions.

The Litany,

With pity behold the sorrows of our hearts.

Mercifully forgive the sins of thy peo - ple.

Favourably with mercy hear our prayers.

O Son of David, have mercy up - on us.

Both now and ever vouchsafe to hear us, O Christ.

Graciously hear us, O Christ; graciously hear us, O Lord Christ.

O Lord, let thy mercy be showed up - on us.

As we do put our trust in thee.

WE humbly beseech thee, O Father, mercifully to look upon

Let us pray. our infirmities; and, for the glory of thy Name, turn from us all those evils that we most justly have deserved; and grant, that in all our troubles we may put our whole trust and confidence in thy mercy, and evermore serve thee in holiness and pureness of living, to thy honour and glory; through our only Mediator and Advocate, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

A General Thanksgiving.

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we may show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honour and glory, world without end.

Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom.

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting.

Amen.

2 Cor. xiii. 14.

THE grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all ev-er-more.

Amen.

7. Thou shalt purge me with hyssop, and I | shall be | clean: thou shalt wash me, and I | shall be | whiter than | snow.
8. Thou shalt make me hear of | joy and | gladness: that the bones
which thou hast | brok-en | may re- | joice.
9. Turn thy face | from my | sins: and put out | all— | my mis- | deeds.
10. Make me a clean heart, | O— | God: and renew a right spirit |
with- — | in— | me.
11. Cast me not away | from thy | presence: and take not thy Holy |
Spir-it | from— | me.
12. O give me the comfort of thy | help a- | gain: and stablish me | with thy | free— | Spirit.
13. Then shall I teach thy ways un- | to the | wicked: and sinners shall be con- | vert-ed | un-to | thee.
14. Deliver me from blood-guiltiness, O God, thou that art the God | of my | health: and my tongue shall sing | of thy | right-eous- | ness.
15. Thou shalt open my lips, | O— | Lord: and my | mouth shall | show thy | praise.
16. For thou desirest no sacrifice, else would I | give it | thee: but thou delightest not | in— | burnt-- | offerings.
17. The sacrifice of God is a | trou-bled | spirit: a broken and contrite heart, O God, | shalt thou | not de- | spise.
18. O be favourable and gracious | un-to | Sion: build thou the walls | of Je- | ru-sa | lem.
19. Then shalt thou be pleased with the sacrifice of righteousness, with the burnt-offerings | and ob- | lations: then shall they offer young
bullocks up- | on thine | al- — | tar.

Burial of the Dead.

158.

REV. W. FELTON.

159.

L. T. DOWNES.

Psalms xxxix and xc.

1. LORD, let me know my end, and the number | of my | days: that I may be certified how | long I | have to | live.
2. Behold, thou hast made my days as it were a | span— | long: and mine age is even as nothing in respect of thee, and verily every man living is | alto- | gether | vanity.
3. For man walketh in a vain shadow, and disquieteth him- | self in | vain: he heapeth up riches, and cannot tell | who shall | gather | them.
4. And now, Lord, | what is my | hope : Truly my | hope is | even in | thee.
5. Deliver me from all | mine of- | fences: and make me not a re- | buke un- | to the | foolish.
6. When thou with rebukes dost chasten man for sin, thou makest his beauty to consume away, like as it were a moth | fretting a | garment: every man | therefore | is but | vanity.
7. Hear my prayer, O Lord, and with thine ears con- | sider my | calling: hold not thy | peace— | at my | tears.
8. For I am a | stranger with | thee: and a sojourner as | all my | fathers | were.
9. O spare me a little, that I may re- | cover my | strength: before I go
hence, | and be | no more | seen.
10. Lord, thou hast | been our | refuge: from one gener- | ation | to an- | other.
11. Before the mountains were brought forth, or ever the earth and the | world were | made: thou art God from everlasting, and | world with | out— | end.

Burial of the Dead.—CONCLUDED.

158.

REV. W. FELTON.

159.

L. T. DOWNES.

12. Thou turnest man | to de- | struction: again thou sayest, Come a- / gain ye | children of | men.
13. For a thousand years in thy sight are | but as | yesterday: seeing that is past as a | watch— | in the | night.
14. As soon as thou scatterest them they are even | as a | sleep: and fade away | suddenly | like the | grass.
15. In the morning it is green, and | groweth | up: but in the evening it is cut down, | dried | up, and | withered.
16. For we consume away in | thy dis- | pleasure: and are afraid at thy | wrathful | indig- | nation.
17. Thou hast set our mis- | deeds be- | fore thee: and our secret sins in the | light of | thy— | countenance.
18. For when thou art angry all our | days are | gone: we bring our years to an end, as it were a | tale— | that is | told.
19. The days of our age are threescore years and ten; and though men be so strong that they come to | fourscore | years: yet is their strength then but labour and sorrow, so soon passeth it a- | way,
and | we are | gone.
20. So teach us to | number our | days: that we may apply our | hearts— | unto | wisdom.

Glory be to the Father, | and to the | Son: and | to the | Ho-ly
Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ev-er | shall be: world without | end. A- | men.
